Creating a Culture of Openness and Trust: Encouraging Family Dialogue about Difficult Topics

The LA Children's Trust Fund presents the monthly Coffee and Conversations series focused on the theme "Creating a Culture of Openness and Trust: Encouraging Family Dialogue about Difficult Topics." In this session, our guest speakers Lisa Kaichen and Erika Henderson will share strategies and practices to foster an environment of openness and trust within families, enabling constructive conversations around challenging subjects. Learn more about creating a safe space for parents, caregivers, and professionals to gain insights and learn practical techniques for nurturing healthy communication within their families involved with child welfare system. Join us as we embark on a journey towards stronger family bonds and enhanced emotional well-being for children and caregivers alike.
