Promoting Positive Discipline Techniques: Alternatives to Physical Punishment

The LA Children's Trust Fund presents the monthly Coffee and Conversations series focused on the theme Promoting Positive Discipline: Alternatives to Physical Punishment. In this session, our guest speaker Dr. Amy Dickson will explore various strategies and approaches to discipline that nurture healthy child development and foster positive relationships. From understanding the impacts of physical punishment to learning effective alternatives, participants will gain valuable insights and practical tools to create a supportive and nurturing environment for children.
